COOKIE POLICY

The cookie policy describes the use of cookies on the website www.sp500f.com and its related services. It is a legal agreement between the user and SP500 Funders. It explains the types of cookies used, the information collected, and its use.

Types of Cookies:

1. Necessary cookies: These allow navigation and use of the website's features, such as logging in.
2. Functionality cookies: These remember the user's preferences on the website.
3. Analytical cookies: These collect statistical data on the use of the website without containing personal information.
4. Social media cookies: These allow tracking of users on social networks and are used for event tracking and remarketing.

Cookie Options:

Users can change their browser settings to delete or not accept cookies. However, this may affect the full use of the website's features.

Changes and Acceptance:

The policy may be modified, and continuous use of the website implies acceptance of these changes.

Contact:

For more information, users can contact through the contact form or send an email to support@sp500f.com.
